A Glimpse of Our Future

For those of us leaving Tulsa, here is one of probably many looks back. We all realize that we can return, but we also know that Tulsa will never be the same as it was in High School!

Tulsa State Fair: Remember complaining about tired feet, looking at the opposite sex, and spending your hard earned money.

City of Faith: Tulsa's newest addition is known around the world.

Philbrook Museum: Tulsa's world famous museum is also the home of a beautiful garden.

Tulsa University: Tulsa's little Harvard of the Southwest.

Starting the Day Off Early

6:00 a.m.-7:55 a.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday feels like the end of the world. Some of us try with all our might not to admit to ourselves that we really must wake up our brains and prepare for the exhilarating day of learning ahead of us.

After a nutritious breakfast of chips and a coke from Quik Trip, our energy is restored and we might make it to school. On Fridays, many students starve till they get to school so that they can buy donuts like Laura Randick is from Barry Hatchett. Some brainwashed individuals actually arrive at school early simply for the satisfaction of a close parking space. (Which is quite an accomplishment.)

Others of us, like Joan Holmes and Gerald Klein find it difficult to get to school awake, while other students are playing football at 7:00 a.m. A classic example of the Monday morning blues for a girl hits hard when she finds to her horror that she forgot to take out her curlers. Tracy Hammon and Cindy Wright show us the symptoms of an acute case of embarrassment.

Nothing strikes worse than an early morning realization that you need paper. The famous BOOKSTORE always comes through. These students find that this quaint little hole-in-the-wall saves them from a miserable day of borrowing notebook paper. Most of Memorial's student body will all agree on one matter though. No one seems to know which is worse, before 7:55 a.m., or after. Heaven knows what will happen in the hours ahead . . .

Minute by Minute

After stumbling to class and sitting down just as the 8:00 a.m. tardy bell rings, Memorial Chargers already start counting the minutes until lunch. In between the lectures and the note-taking, two of the most popular inventions to make time fly by were the Rubik's Cubes (frustrating little things, aren't they?) and Walkmans (I said WALKMANS, can't you hear me?) Concert Chorus occasionally entertained us with music. (As they say, "Music thrills the soul").

Lunch time brought about new energy, as the students ran to their cars. Eric Weathers and Andy Watson smile with anticipation at the thought of a Bill & Ruths submarine submerging in their empty stomach. No guilt seems to be present in the faces of these two while Matt Webster, Michael Diggs, Marcus Hague, Brian Gilbreath, and Steve Trickett try to make the cafeteria look fun. After all, the cafeteria isn't too bad, but is one of those combos called a plate lunch worth a dollar?

MEMORIAL SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The Great Halls of Memorial High

After our stomachs are full, Memorial Chargers seem to come to life. Lori Mayfield, this year's first place candy pusher, hopes that Laura Leslie and Darla Munkirs won't think about "all those calories" until after she has their money! Speaking of money, if Memorial is known as a "rich kid" school, our classy styles of clothing have to deserve part of the blame. Michelle White, Julie Monroe, Allison Littlefield, Kari Wynn, and Janet Anthony model the latest winter fashions, (all merchandise visible in the great halls of Memorial High). If you can't decide which shirt to wear one day, no problem! Wear them both! As Chris Crawley displays, it is a style only for the coolest. If clothes aren't your bag, cars must be. Our parking lot, filled with Corvettes, 280Z's, RX7's, and Jeeps lives up to the name also. Ed Ostapawich, John Ping, Justin Hoose, and Tom Williamson try to keep this car up to Memorial standards.

Chargers Charge On

Most Chargers find that by 2:45, it is time to charge on home. But Coach Chapman believes in a full day's work and tries to wear out his boys. Jay Archambo, Harry Crawford, and Bill Daniels are working on getting all three of those balls into the hoop at the same time. (Give it up, guys!) Still, boys aren't the only ones that work up a sweat. Lynn Ruess keeps in shape by going to dance class. Oh, the things we do to keep fit!

Even though doing homework has almost become extinct, Terri Shipley hasn't quite caught on (Isn't she cute when she's thinking?) Look at the clock Terri, no more thinking allowed after 2:45 p.m.

After Hours

Evenings bring about the sides of Memorial students not usually seen from 8:00-2:45. For instance, who would have ever guessed that Randy Cloud plays the guitar in the midst of a forest, or for heaven's sake, that Francey Young actually does homework! Jeff Burwell, a typical high school kid, watches T.V. and doesn't even think about doing homework (You know, homework, that stuff the teacher tells you to do with five minutes left in the class and then says it is due the next day.)

Working during high school is a social norm. Jana Everett works to earn her money at Aberson's, while Michelle Barfield spends her evenings decorated with bright colors and serving corn-dogs with a smile.

HOT JUICE

Weekend Roundup

Chargers also lead exciting weekends! Lori Mayfield, Miss Memorial XIX, enjoys a night she will never forget while Jim Alexander and Richard Corley try their best to comfort her in her state of shock. Barry Hatchet, one of our class clowns, proudly displays the Senior Float.

What a better way to spend a Friday night than at the Tulsa State Fair (checking out the scene) or at a Memorial Charger Basketball game (rooting for the team).

Proud Charger Terri Shipley washes her car in hopes of meeting a gorgeous hunk who will help her clean the white-walls. While Dana Farmer and Lisa Finfer are sweet talking Santa into a new Porche!

Days to Remember

The past year's events have left memories of hope and joy and some of grief and sorrow. Our nation's President, Ronald Reagan, has led our country through our economic recession even though he had been shot in March. Sandra Day O'Connor has made a big step by becoming the first woman justice in the Supreme Court. The assassination of Anwar Sadat, President of Egypt, shocked the world. Great advancements have been made in space with the success of the Space Shuttle. Finally, the world was enchanted by the extravagance and beauty of the Royal Wedding of Prince Charles and Lady Diana.

We Finally Came Through

Movin' up and comin' through; We're the class of 82'

The seniors of 1982 did just that. We came through and succeeded in everything we did from selling donuts to financing school activities. During pep rallies we let everyone know that seniors really do RULE! Even though we will all go our separate ways, each and everyone one of us will always hold our own special memories of our days at Memorial High School.

1. Herr Brown, what would we have done without him!
2. This looks like one of Coach Chapman's famous donut parties!
3. The senior play, "Web of Murder", went over well, or at least Jim Alexander thought so.
4. Thea Boggs can't find a place large enough for her short name on the senior board at Photography Center.
5. Terri Shipley is not excited about playing cowboys and Indians just to be able to graduate in a cap and gown.

Memorial's Top Ten

Seniors chose their favorite class and Special Physiology made the top of the list. Consequently, Coach MacKenna was the favorite teacher. Other favorites include Sr. English, Accounting, Single Survival, and Art. Ms. Gordon, Mr. Cunningham, Mr. Becknell, and Mrs. McDougal complete the favorite teachers.

Other favorites include:

MUSIC GROUPS: Journey, The Cars, Foreigner, Second Chapter of Acts, and Styx.

BOOKS: The Bible, The Outsiders, Gone With the Wind, 101 Uses For a Dead Cat, and No One Gets Out of Here Alive.

MOVIES: Raiders of the Lost Ark, On Golden Pond, Taps, Arthur, and Stripes.

MOST ADMIRED PERSON: Mom and Dad, Ronald Reagan.

Every year Seniors are faced with the same question, which college to attend. This year OSU won an overwhelming number. 136 Memorial students will be roaming the campus at Stillwater. 11 students will attend OU. The remainder of the class will be spread from various colleges from SMU to University of Hawaii!

Memorial students enjoyed lunch at Bill and Ruth's Sub Shop at least one day a week. Number two on the list of favorites was Taco Bueno. The rest of the list is Peppers, Arby's and Coney Islander.

1. Coach MacKenna "loves" his Special Phys. classes.
2. Bill and Ruth's even tastes good to the Mickey Mouse Club!
3. "Some of this talk is just too much to believe!" (Mark Gaway)
4. Even though the sweats clash, Jenni Orvis and Terri Shipley are still friends!
5. The Broncos don't even make it over the speed "mountains" at Memorial!
6. Alohal! Be There!!
7. Remember getting your ears cleaned just because you needed a drink of water.
8. Your friendly Phillips 66 man is pretty proud of the price he has, huh!
9. Look out for the Memorial Mash team. They patrol the parking lot!

Remember . . .

... skipping lunch to put gas in your car because a gallon of gas was $1.06!
... sending in your college application, LATE!

... mailing your graduation announcements, then waiting for the checks to roll in.

... parking in the NORTH north forty at 8:05 because Sophomores were allowed to drive to school.

Senior Bits and Pieces

1982 used to seem a lifetime away. Now we're wondering where all the years went! Memorial's seniors are one of a kind. We're special because we did our best, for ourselves, for our friends and for our school. Each of us have our bits and pieces of memories, that we'll never forget. We learned together, laughed together, flunked together, and graduated together. The class of '82 is now history.

1. "M and M's get my teeth their whitest!" Andrea Adams.

2. Ronald Reagan (Terry O'Donnell) congratulates Jim Kerpon on passing Mr. Chapman's Contemporary Affairs.

3. What can you say about a beautiful face like that? (Jamil Shoemaker)

4. "Who? What? When? Why?" (Liane Miller)

5. "See what we learned to do in 12 years of school!" (Jim Steyer, Paul Eagleton)

6. "See, I'm not always a scrooge!" (John Phillips)

7. "We really were good all year! You just gotta believe us Santa!"

8. "I'm gonna kill the next person that pulls my ponytail!" (Jeannie Joles)

9. "You're making me nervous!" (Denise Koller)

10. "Yeah, we're good, and we know it!" (Bandies)

STUDENT LIFE

Miss Memorial XIX

Homecoming — October 31, 1981

The Queen's Court — David Wheeler, Lisa Davis, Harry Crawford, Brenda Latch, Karen Cooper, Jay Fields, Lori Mayfield, Richard Corley, Jeannie Joles, Gene Bledsoe, LaDawn Pirtle, Sean McKee, Bobby Farris, Cheryl Ponder.

Suspense filled the air on the morning of October 31, 1981. The entire student body and faculty were seated in the football stadium. For the second year in a row everyone was to be present for the crowning of Miss Memorial. The ceremony began with the presentation of the winners of the float competition. Next, came the procession of the attendants and their escorts. The long awaited moment finally arrived, and Lori Mayfield was crowned Miss Memorial XIX. The festive overtone of the day carried over into the evening as the Chargers proved victorious over the Central Braves.

The feelings I had the day I was chosen Miss Memorial XIX are almost too great to describe. The moment my name was called I felt shock. Even after the initial shock passed, I realized the responsibility that accompanies the title of Miss Memorial. The honor I have received is truly a great responsibility. I will try my best to live up to the name of Miss Memorial. I will honor the title just as you have honored me by choosing me to represent such a fine school. The feelings you have given me will never leave my heart and the memories will never fade. Thanks to all.

Sincerely,
Lori Mayfield

This year's musical, The King and I, was presented February 18, 19, and 20. It is the story of the King of Siam and his experiences with an English tutor named Anna. The King wants to Westernize his country, but he has trouble accepting Anna's ideas because she is a woman. Anna eventually has great influence with the King, and they become great friends. The musical was, as usual, well-performed and successful.

1. Simon of Legree and his scientific dogs search for Eliza.
2. Anna sings about her deceased husband.
3. Kralahome gives Anna and Louis a warm welcome.
4. The royal children "get to know" Anna.
5. Tuptim retorts "My Master is Pleased."
6. Kralahome asks Lady Thiang, "Have you been match making again?"
7. The wives make fun of western people.
8. The children wait for Anna.
9. Captain Orton is not about to tell Louis which way Siam is.
10. The march of the Siamese Children.
11. The King describes his puzzlement.
12. A child performs to please Anna.
13. Lady Thiang sings about the wonderful King.

THE
1982

Spirit Week '82 ran from April 12 through April 16. The week's activities included: Monday — Hat Day; Tuesday — 60's Day; Wednesday — Punk/Non-Prep Day; Thursday — Clash Day; Friday — Hawaiian Day. During the week the Sophomores sold snowcones and cotton candy and sponsored a Dunk Machine. The Latin Club sponsored their annual Slave Sale and everyone participated in Almost Anything Goes. The administration and the students worked together to make Spirit Week the best ever.

1. Almost Anything Goes with Juniors Mike Adams, Ron Culver, David Fine and Harry Crawford.
2. Irene Monnett and Lyn Ruess "punk out."
3. Kris Keegan shows the determination of a winner.
4. Almost Anything Goes as these Seniors try to pass an orange.
5. Robert Pardo experiences the agony of defeat.

1. Arms and eggs fly at the Egg Toss
2. Linda Ford gets ready to hit the water.
3. Greg Schooley, Irene Monnett, P. J. Urich and Bill James "Hang Ten."
4. A revengeful student dunks Mr. Cruz.
5. Harry Crawford "almost had it" in the Egg Toss.
6. Anne Gale is ready to roll.

Stanton
1965-1981

Juniors started the year promoting and selling tickets for the Soph.-Jr. play. Everyone had a chance to get involved in the homecoming gala. Juniors decorated their float and gave the junior hall a good working over. The junior hall took first place. What spirit! What class! The big day came for juniors to take their first step towards becoming a senior. The class of '83 placed their orders for class rings in October. Senioritis is just beginning to set in! "Show your spirit! Buy a Charger spirit mug. Support the junior class." Remember these posters. Juniors worked hard selling these mugs. Did you support your class?

JUNIORS BROADEN THEIR HORIZONS

1. Forget class! Give David Fields a sports magazine and he'll be content all hour.
2. Kevin Papke shows extreme patience as he attempts to master the secrets of the ever-popular Rubik's cube.
3. Karen Arganbright adds new dimensions to English class as she polishes her nails.
4. Julie Tumilty once again displays "junior brilliance" as she beats herself in the game of Pinata.
5. Not yet a perfect senior, junior Kathy McGahey grimaces as her typewriter makes another mistake.
6. Yes, Shannon Foster, they do have a new punishment for illegal parking.

LOVE WILL KEEP US TOGETHER

Love Is A Strange Thing
It is a flower so delicate that a touch will bruise it,
And so strong that nothing will stop its growth.

How often we miss love —
by a wrong gesture,
by an unspoken word,
by not keeping silent
at the right time.
How easily we lose love —
by interference of others,
by lack of money,
by a quarrel over nothing.
Yet We Cannot Live Without Love.

September Sophomores started the year a little backwards with one foot in the hole and the other on a banana peel.

October Tickets for the Soph.-Jr. play sold like hotcakes.

Sophomores exceeded the Juniors with sales mounting to 300 dollars.

November The lollipop sales were real "LIFESAVERS," adding 400 dollars to the Sophomore treasury.

December The class of '84 made sure two needy families had a Merry Christmas by collecting money and purchasing food, clothing, toys, and two Christmas trees. That's the true meaning of Christmas!

January Disney stick candy sold as though Mickey Mouse was managing the sales. The election for Sophomore class favorites was held. Julie Wakefield and Blake Fail were chosen.

SOPHOMORES GI

THEIR BEST SHOT

A sophomore's antic in their "favorite" class, P.E. Hey! What's senior Michael Diggs doing in there?

Teesha Upton's score is now 260. (She gets 50 pts. for running down stop signs.)

The one class which all students apply themselves to, driver's education. Do these people look safe enough for Tulsa streets?

Sh-h-h! Tom Sanditen doesn't know he's supposed to let go of the hoop!

Soph. Lisa Davis isn't convinced Mr. Beasley knows what he's talking about.

Dierdra Falletti says, "This sure isn't anything like Junior High was!"

Rebuilding seemed to be the word to describe the 1981 Memorial football team. However, little did anyone know that the Chargers would have an unblemished season record of 10-0.

The Chargers were able to hold off Enid in the first round of play-offs to retain their perfect record. However, their record diminished when the Chargers met the Roughers in the second round of play-offs. Although this game was important, the Chargers held their heads high. The rebuilding team of 1981 had set a new school record for an undefeated season, and they proved once again that they were the BEST!

1. Andy Hocker says, "Everything's Cool."
2. Our awesome Charger defense smothers the opponent.
3. Brian Hart portrays his "tough guy" image.
4. Eluding Muskogee defenders, Mike Ross strives for yardage.
5. Bartt Malroney concentrates as he punts the ball.
6. Chargers show their pride after defeating Muskogee 3-0.
7. Looking downfield, Gary Geiger finds an open receiver.
8. Eric Koenig awaits the punted ball, hoping he doesn't fumble.
9. Brian Goforth "warms-up" before the All-City semi-finals.
10. Eric Mims receives instructions for the next play.

This year's varsity basketball team had an exciting season. They traveled to Arizona for a game against the highly rated Yuma team. Although they lost this game, they didn't give up easily by taking the game into three overtimes.

The crowd contributed to many exciting games, some more than others. This was Coach Cole's first year to coach for Memorial, and he did a fantastic job with the players. All in all, the team played to the best of their ability during the season and playoffs.

1. Scott Getter stretches for the jump ball.
2. Kyle Hardaway anticipates the ball.
3. After driving down the court, Kent Hardaway goes in for the lay-up.
4. Coach Cole stands as the team comes in for a time-out.
5. Jay Fields follows through on his shot with ease.
6. Jay Archambo takes a deep breath between plays.
7. Kyle Hardaway shoots from the outside.
8. Kent Hardaway shoots a free throw.
9. Coach Cole gives instructions from the sidelines.
10. Jay Fields warms-up before the game.
11. Disgustingly, Scott Getter disagrees with the referee.
12. Scott Getter goes up against Washington's Wayman Tisdale for the opening tip-off.
13. Kent Hardaway makes a back-breaking shot.

Cheerleading . . .

Last April when Memorial held their cheerleading tryouts, no one thought that this year's squads would be any different from those of the past. However, little did they know that the 1981-82 varsity squad would be competing in Orlando, Florida for the National High School Cheerleading Championship in less than one year.

It all started last June when the 9 members attended the U.S. Spiritleader Camp at ORU. It was there where they began to learn their 3 minute routine under the direction of Rey Lozano and Mary Lile. The squad practiced continually throughout the summer and school year taking a break in October to compete at OSU for the State Competition where they placed first.

The girls began to get very anxious about Nationals; first, however, they had to win the Southwest Regionals on Nov. 7 in San Marcos, Texas. These regionals proved to be no problem because the squad came home with the championship which no other Tulsa squad has ever achieved.

The day to leave for Orlando came quickly. The Chargers left Tulsa on Feb. 22 scheduled to return one week later.

Unfortunately, only 10 of the 18 squads were able to place in the top 10. However, the Chargers had no reason to be upset because they gave the student body one more reason to be proud of Memorial.

ACADEMICS

THE BUCK STOPS HERE

During her two short years here at Memorial, Betty Sprinkle has gained the support of the students and faculty. She has shown great school pride by attending football games, basketball games, plays, musicals, and numerous other events. Her interest in every aspect of Memorial's student activities has strengthened the bond between administration and the students. The bond was also strengthened with the parents by her participation in monthly P.T.A. coffees.

Under Betty Sprinkle's able supervision, changes were made both inside and outside the school building. These affected the school's staff as well as the school's appearance, for certain faculty and administrative members were reassigned to better serve the needs of the students. The changes made to the building and grounds included freshly painted walls inside the building and speed bumps in the students' parking lot. These changes have helped add to Memorial's reputation as being the best school in Tulsa, both in scholastics and in extracurricular activities. This all goes to prove what Betty Sprinkle says — "Good things are happening at Memorial this year."

1. A file-cabinet meeting between Mrs. Hemphill and Mrs. Sprinkle.
2. Dr. Larry Zenke, Superintendent of Tulsa Public Schools.
3. You clap your hands while I beat out the tempo on my desk. (Mrs. Hemphill and Mrs. Sprinkle)
4. Mrs. Orcutt had a busy first year as secretary to Mrs. Sprinkle.
5. Tulsa School Board of Education
6. Mrs. Sprinkle and Mrs. Black discuss school activities.

Dale Schuler
Assistant Principal

Assistant Principals Dale Schuler and Talmadge Thompson have shown an ever deepening interest in the academic and extracurricular programs at Memorial. Mr. Schuler's many duties include coordinating activity programs, keeping financial records, supervising the bookstore, and keeping the school's major calendar. He is also the Rifle Club sponsor. Mr. Thompson's responsibilities include class schedules for teachers and students. He also organizes test schedules for the SRA, SAT, PSAT, and the ACT tests. Together these two men help maintain the Memorial tradition of excellence.

Oh, yes, I can sell you an elevator pass for 2. (Mr. Schuler)
Mr. Schuler: "Are you serious?"
Put your right foot in — put your right foot out — (Mr. Schuler, Mr. Thompson)
"Now it's your turn — you make the cards stand on edge," says Mr. Schuler to Mrs. Coxe.
But I told her I couldn't help being late. (Mr. Thompson, Mrs. Cox)
"Do you mind if I quote that?" is the question Mrs. Orcutt asks Mr. Thompson and Mr. Wilson.
Mr. Thompson can't believe his secretary is the first to sign up for a lunch pass.

As deans of Memorial High School, Marge Creager and Warren Booze show a responsibility to the students by watching out for the students' best interests. This includes paying particular attention to those troubled and mischievous students by handling disciplinary action, unexcused absences and tardies. The results show that they do their job well and take pride in the work done.

Counselors have a never ending job, for they are aware of every aspect of the students' school life. It is the counselors' responsibility to oversee the students' schedules, ensuring the right subjects and courses are taken to guarantee graduation. They are also responsible for scheduling parent conferences, arranging for college representatives, and serving as liaisons in teacher-student relations. Consequently, the counselors continue to play an important role in school life at Memorial.

Making a school operate efficiently needs the help of experienced people. An area of great importance is the main office. Keeping busy with such tasks as typing, answering phones, changing schedules, or preparing morning bulletins must require the staff to have much patience and devotion. Just as important are the people who make up the attendance office. With the aid of this office the teachers can rely on a fairly accurate account of student attendance. Others that the school depends on are the people who run the bookstore and nurse's office. Without all of these, our school may not function very smoothly.

Tomorrow's "Businessmen"

Memorial offers a number of business education courses which are very beneficial to any student. Acquiring the skill of typing can stay with a person the rest of his life. It is also very helpful if a person plans to enter college. Taking an accounting course may help a student find a possible career as an accountant. No potential secretary should be without taking shorthand or business procedures. Other possible courses to consider would be a business law class or business math.

1. Karen Cooper learns the tricks of working cross word puzzles.
2. Richard Corley and Mark Gaway are extremely enthused over their accounting.
3. Craig Clark concentrates on scoring an "A" timing.
4. Karen Anderson works diligently on making her accounting balance.
5. Mrs. Dougless watches over her accounting class.
6. David Jones looks for possible errors.
7. P. J. Urich, Brad Martin, and Robert Yadon enjoy Business Law.

Workin' 9 to 5

The COE and DE department at Memorial is a very successful program in promoting business and marketing for students. This enables them to acquire first hand experience with the help of able instructors. These students are also guided by teachers in finding appropriate part-time jobs pertaining to their course of study.

1. Deca provides a display to help promote enrollment in distributive education.
2. Jeanine Morris, Patti Jones, Anne McCabe, Stephanie Vanderlind, Jeff Manatrey and Mary Griffin are all part of the DE program.
3. Mrs. Wells helps Stephanie Vanderlind and Anne McCabe with their assignments.
4. Jeanine Morris and Patti Jones look through the DECA newsletter.
5. Terri Sherrell learns through experience.
6. Becky Rinkel works with the computer.
7. Mrs. Hughes organizes possible jobs for the COE students.
8. Becky York and Shelly Johnson compare their COE assignments.
9. Loretta McKelvey learns proper telephone etiquette.

Memorial's Roving Reporters

The Wall Street Journal may have the largest circulation, but as far as Memorial students are concerned the Sentinel ranks at the top. The Sentinel is the students' source for school events, such as sports, plays and assemblies. More interesting articles cover students' views on such things as speed bumps, school food and various facets of Charger life.

1. It's pretty hard to turn the page on this edition. (Chris Owen)
2. Lyn Ruess and Becky Stutz discuss a layout for the Sentinel.
3. John Goodwin experiments with one of the Sentinel's layouts.
4. Let your fingers do the reading.
5. That sub at Bill and Ruth's was really something. (Mike Richardson)
6. Blake Ashlock tries to hold the page down with his elbow.

Memorial Students Turn Write

Memorial's English Department has succeeded once again in teaching the students the fundamentals of grammar and composition. Some of the literature favorites enjoyed by Memorial students include Shakespeare's Macbeth and Hamlet and Nathaniel Hawthorne's Scarlet Letter. Another aspect of English enjoyed by the students is the wide variety of homework.

1. I'll trade you my pen for your pencil. (Mrs. Green and Bonnie Spence)
2. She doesn't know we can sleep with our eyes wide open. (Jeff Murry)
3. This is her "pop quiz-with-10-essay-questions" smile. (Mrs. McDougal)
4. This English class "loves" reading their Lively Art of Writing book.
5. Mrs. Chappelle shows Patti MacManus how to take a test.
6. A typical English class.
7. Here's one Ford they won't recall for a slow engine. (Linda Ford)
8. "And then guess what I said . . ." (Paul Gattis and Donna Paulson)

From Cameras to Cars

The Industrial Arts Department offers both boys and girls the opportunity to study anything from auto mechanics to developing film. Courses taught include drafting, electronics, automobile repair, and photography.

1. They can't seem to avoid the draft. (Tim Dreiling)
2. Our new hobby — lifting engines. (Delman Norman and Mark Wiley)
3. Balancing pencils takes concentration. (Mark McElroy)
4. Mr. Wheeler gives us his distinguished pose.
5. "And they said I couldn't draw circles and chew on a sucker at the same time." (Jack Kuykendall)
6. "I'll push hard and run fast while you steer." (Justin Hoose)
7. "These electronic gadgets confuse me." (Troy Guinn)

Memorial's Future Picassos

The award-winning Memorial Art Department again this year produced winners in both local and state art contests. The culmination of the students' work was shown at the annual Memorial High School Spring Art Show, where friends and parents could view the work done. All forms of art work are involved, including sculpting, still life, oils, portraiture and pottery.

1. Help! I can't see my painting. (Tara Fryer)
2. All it needs is "de plane, de plan" and Mr. Roark will give me my wish. (Francis Macarian)
3. "My dream girl" (Chris Owen)
4. "This paint-by-number set is hard." (Dana Linker)
5. "And they thought I couldn't paint." (Britni Craig)
6. Jeff Smith works on Uncle Thomas mask.

Speechies Speak With Style

To eloquently emote and be an erudite elocutionist is the aim of Cora McDonald's students. Plainly speaking, these are the Speech classes. Their assignments involve not only learning how to speak before a group, but advance into the area of mime, play acting, facial expressions and control, and all aspects of being an effectual performer.

Many students use their talent to be a part of the class plays, school musical, and to perform in speech competitions among the city and state schools. Even if the student is not interested in the performing aspect of the speech class, the experience taken from the group is invaluable in dealing with people in everyday life both in the school and the working world.

1. The speech class portrays Scrooge.
2. "Oh, my goodness," cries Mrs. McDonald.
3. "Teddy critiques the speeches, not I," says Mrs. McDonald
4. Mrs. McDonald asks Michelle Canon, "What in the world is this?"
5. This little teapot has his handle on, what's wrong with his spout? (Mrs. McDonald)
6. If I sleep sitting up, maybe she won't notice.

A Longing to Learn Languages

In memory of Virginia Smith
1932-1981

The importance and enthusiasm which Memorial students show for foreign languages can be seen through the increased enrollment in the programs. The students can choose between French, German, Spanish and Latin, from beginning to advanced independent study.

The scope of the language program can be witnessed during the annual International Feast. At this event, all classes and their guests are surrounded by a mixture of food, language, and atmosphere from all countries represented.

1. I told him I couldn't possibly go to the chariot races looking like this. (Mrs. Holley)
2. Latin students re-enacting a typical Roman household. (Paul Eagleton, Scott Vrooman, Heather Brown, Becky Price)
3. Mr. Johnson performs one of Slim Whitman's Spanish songs.
4. The subject of our sermon is — (Mr. Cruz)
5. I wonder if Caesar had a toga catalog to look through. (Mrs. Holley)
6. The German class poses for the camera.

Keep the Home Fires Burning

The Home Ec Department provides all the students with the skills needed to "survive single." In these classes, students become acquainted with aspects of cooking, clothing, family life and financial planning. Homemaking classes study cooking and sewing; clothing classes range from simple to couture designs; while Single Survival provides a combination of necessary skills for living independently.

1. Now to add salt, sliced strawberries, one arm . . ." (Mary Kondos, Mike Diggs, Teresa Lebo)
2. "I have so many pressing problems." (Susie Sanders)
3. "Your new necklace is really eye-catching." (Mrs. Brown, Mary Lee, Penny Creitz)
4. Mary Kondos tries our own brand of super glue.
5. "I'll show her. I'll sew the pant legs together." (Marsha Adams)
6. And now bake until golden brown.
7. "If I'd known it was you coming, I would have used the cheaper shortening." (Mike Diggs)
8. "If we mix this all together guess what we have? School food."

Trig + Algebra = Homework

Or, It All Adds Up! The Math Department achieves its goal of providing maximum quality education for Memorial. Courses range from Basic Math to Calculus to Computer Math to Geometry. With this variety to choose from, the student is offered exactly the course he needs to meet his requirements.

1. "I'll get an A in concentration."
2. Computer math scholar fishing for answers. (Terry Fisher)
3. New version of the fairy tale entitled, "Beauties and the Sleeping Beast."
4. "These comics fit right inside these pages. (Math class)
5. "I'm great at drawing these lines; it's the problem I can't solve. (Cate Colburn)
6. "Wonder how long it will be before HBO comes on?" (Patti Appleman, Nancy Dougherty)
7. And the weather map for today shows . . . (Gary Ledbetter)
8. But if you can't remember 2 plus 2, maybe you might need a tutor." (Mr. Reynolds and Kris Keegan)

Memorials Unsung Heroes

From answering the phones to grading papers, Memorial students are an indispensable part of helping the school to run smoothly. Under the heading of School Service, students receive classroom credit for their help. These pupils are indeed the unsung heroes as they check out library books, deliver passes, grade papers and run errands. Without these assistants, teachers and staff would have less time to perform their tasks.

1. I hope some good looking girl will check me out. (Jordan Randall)
2. Restrunging tennis rackets is my favorite class. (Trey Krampf)
3. Aren't we the sixth caller? (Karen Hoflich, Bridget Dorndorfer)
4. Grading papers goes faster with a Dr. Pepper. (Mrs. Cairns, Talleri Thomas)
5. "Memorial High School — may I help you?" (Laurie Rush)
6. Watch the birdie. (Ricky Bennett)
7. These students enjoy working in the Dean's office. (Shawn Patrick, Eric Keener)
8. The Three Stooges. (Kimber Ray, Tony Corneto, Greg Carmack).

Stagecraft — First Row — Phillip Martin, Chuck Wentz, Jeff Boyce, Jerry Dody, John Seuss, Brad Spears, Second Row — Tony Scheiper, Mike Meyer, Burl Beard, Pat Harker, Mike Lindemann, Jeff Ward, Steve Arlington, John Wilson, Mark Pittman. Third Row — Kyle Wentz, Curtis Cunningham, Stan Williams, Todd Dunn, Gary Mortin, Todd Livesay, Fourth Row — Justin Hoose, Jeff Johnson, Barry Hatchett, Fifth Row — Robert Yadan, Jeff Nixon.

Stagecraft, under the direction of Mr. Poss, greatly added to the success of Memorial's productions by planning and building all stage props for assemblies and events. Members of the AV classes delivered and operated equipment, along with doing production work for teachers. Custodians and cafeteria workers provide the necessary services to keep the school going smoothly.

1. Don't stand there! Help me get my fingers out of the hole! (Robert Womack, Mr. McCoy)
2. If you're sane, you're not one of us. (Stagecraft)
3. What! They pre-empted General Hospital? (Mr. McCoy)
4. Cheese . . . cake. (Fran Amilian)
5. Who let the puppy in here? (Mr. Cordle, Mr. Cannaran)
6. Students and janitors get along fine.
7. We get served the leftovers.

Trikes to Trans-Am

Probably the most sought after and long awaited course at Memorial is Drivers' Education. In the classroom, students learn the rules of the road and practice safe driving habits by use of simulators. After several months, the instructors take the students on the highways for actual driving experience.

1. Now there's a good-looking guy. (Wilson Hunt)
2. Reminds me of Six Flags. (Tina Edwards)
3. Mr. Hopper shows his students what they shouldn't do.
4. A traffic jam in the middle of Memorial.
5. People avoid this kind of license on the highway.
6. I Just L-O-O-O-V-E Drivers' Ed. (Nancy Utter)

Something Special

Teachers work closely with students in the Special Education Department. They also give individual attention to our foreign students to aid them in learning English.

1. Working Away!. (Jon Maas, Steven Feil)

2. You didn't dot your "i". (Dawn Foster, Denise Dunhart)

3. Time for a nap. (John Feil)

4. On your mark, get set, go! (Brian Schlehuber, Darren Gonzalez)

5. English is our second language.

Games People Play

The Physical Education Department is where fun and work are combined for the good of the students. Many activities are provided for both boys and girls. Team sports played include basketball, baseball, football, volleyball and intramurals. Individual sports include swimming, track, tennis, aerobics and many others. One of the most popular sports is Frisbee. Whether the first or last class of the day, there is something for everyone in the Physical Education Department.

1. All interested students get up and stand over there.
2. Wow! Now, she's talented.
3. Just hit the ball and hold your breath.
4. Teachers always give students a good first impression. (Mrs. Wattenbarger, Coach Dugger)
5. Kick the habit! (Beto Trejo)
6. My shoulder problem is acting up again. (Mike Diggs)
7. Now that I've got it, what do I do with it?

Learning on the Job

Some students divide their days between classroom work at Memorial and vocational training at the Vo-Tech Center. Some courses offered include auto repair, sewing skills, cosmetology, printing, computer technology and many others.

1. My job is to sit here and look gorgeous. (Teri Hudson)
2. If she only knew what I was doing, she wouldn't be smiling! (Debbie Berryman)
3. I'm transferring your money into my account. (Lori Leslie)
4. It's under here, somewhere. (Craig Christianson)
5. I wonder what happens when I loosen this. (Tony Finch)
6. It's almost time to leave — we'd better get to work.
7. Three times and the laundry still isn't dry. (Andy Fowler)
8. If the red wire touches the green ... BOOM! (Mark Sherwood)

From Frogs . . .

Memorial's science department covers everything from dissecting crayfish to figuring out formulas. The courses offered in the science department include; physics, chemistry, earth science, biology, physiology, and geology will be added next year.

1. If they erase my blackboard, I'll be sunk. (Mr. Barnard)
2. Mr. Willhoite examines his student's enthusiastic expressions.
3. We call 'em as we see 'em. (John Nettles, Mr. Quinn)
4. Yeah, but that's how the Blob started, too.
5. And she though she did well on the test. (Mrs. Sumbry, Gayle Galt)
6. The sign says it all. (Lisa Hunter)
7. The chemistry twins, Theresa Miller and Tim Mullen.
8. The chemistry class builds its own atom bomb.

To Formulas

Each class deals with different aspects of scientific understanding. Earth Science deals with the earth and the universe that surrounds it. Chemistry covers the characteristics of elements and simple formulas. Physics deals with the properties and relationship of matter and energy. Biology covers the vast area of plant and animal life and its origin.

1. I wish these books had colored pictures and less writing. (Mike Haley)
2. Don't ask us what we're experimenting with, but the glasses are in case of an atomic explosion. (Lee Herring, Danny King, Tim Mullen, Ron Culver)
3. If the world and the bubbles pop at the same time, we're in big trouble. (Lisa Hunter, Kelly King)
4. Guess where we've been for lunch? (Heidi Hefner)
5. But it's staring back at me.
6. Is this what school food really looks like? (Steve Beatie)

History Repeats Itself

1. Coach Eddy helps Steve Goodson with his assignment.
2. Chip Marshall imitates Mr. Henderson in teaching about Russia.
3. Mr. Nelson reads a Newsweek to Abe Lincoln.
4. James Johnson studies up on current world events.
5. Mrs. Alexander "loves" history.
6. This class finds history invigorating.
7. A patriotic class says the Pledge of Allegiance.
8. A typical history class learns to decipher a history book.
9. History classes have to have lectures!
10. Coach Blackburn demonstrates how to draw a pyramid of squares.
11. Terry O'Donnell, Brett Elliott, Mary Manicom, Bob Ball, and Allen Stevens are involved in a heated discussion in contemporary affairs.
12. A rule well learned by all history students.
13. Mrs. Lentz prepares to show one of the well loved history films.
14. Coach Chapman seems a bit nervous with the visit by the policeman.
15. The much cherished American Government book frequently found in the hallway.

A part of every high school curriculum is the ever popular history courses. No one is able to avoid this class because it is a requirement for every graduating Memorial Senior to have taken some history at some time. For a start most sophomores take U.S. history. After that a student has his choice of a few different areas of history, such as World History, Amer. Govn't, Sociology, and Contemporary Affairs. Through a student's years in history he must have endured the ritual activities of films, class discussions, research projects, oral reports, and guest speakers.

The members of the Memorial Concert Chorus serve as representatives of our school in their many appearances throughout the city of Tulsa. By request, this group performs for both the Downtown and Eastside Rotary clubs, churches, and various Junior High assemblies. In addition, they join with the chorus from Edison High school to present Christmas carols during the holiday season. For their fellow students, Concert Chorus joins with the other musical groups to present both winter and spring programs.

Intermingled with preparations for these activities, the students learn music theory, involving how to read and write music, and study music literature, encompassing jazz, rock, blues and classical selections.

Accompanist for the concert Chorus is Laura Leslie. Dan Call serves as director.

1. Please, Mr. Call, I'll never forget my homework again. (Melynda Reed)
2. Mr. Call says, "Oh yeah? Come on, try me!"
3. I wish I had said that to his face. (Mr. Call)
4. Don't be nervous — these communal weddings are becoming quite popular. (The Concert Chorus)

Rounding out the vocal music department at Memorial are the Mixed Chorus and the Girls Chorus, both directed by Dan Call. The groups perform many different types of music for the public, as well as for their own enjoyment. They participate in both the Spring and Winter Concerts and represent Memorial at the Oklahoma State University Festival. Accompanist for the Mixed Chorus is Suzy Eaton. Tami Charlton is the accompanist for the Girls Chorus.

PepClub PepClub PepClub PepClub PepClub PepClub PepClub PepC

PEP CLUB really kept the pride burning within the Memorial fans. When a Charger walked down the main hall on game day, it was evident who was the best in T-Town. The Charger fans were faithful followers no matter where they ventured. Even when they traveled to M*A*S*H Muskogee, to win their first UNDEFEATED season, our stands were filled. Pep Club held the M.S. Drive, had many door decorating contests, Pep Rallies, and dress-up days to raise our Charger Spirit. No one else had as much spirit as these CHARGERS!!!

1. I'm a nurse at the 4077th (Sherry Adams)
 2. WE LOVE OUR TEAM!!!
 3. "We are Family"
 4. Miss Piggy, our newest cheerleader
 5. "Howdy Pardners, welcome to the Memorial Cow Poke Range!!" (Devin Northcutt)

1. "Don't worry, she always looks this way." (Teresa Miller and Julie Wakefield)
2. The Army wants you!!!
3. "Chargers on the run."
4. "Those amazing Charger Fans."
5. "I like Linda Ford's spirited tricornered hat, too," says Paul Eagleton.
6. PEP CLUB OFFICERS — Susan Cleaver, Meg Glenn, Teresa Miller, Tiffany Berger, Devin Northcutt, Jill Lenhart, Julie Wakefield.
7. "Devoted Charger fan." (Jim Johnson)
8. Jill Lenhart boogies to the Charger beat.

Band — The Big Blue Machine had an "AWESOME" Year. They started out this great season with a new director, Mr. Jair Klarfeld, and his assistant Miss Chris Thiry, who had full responsibility for the flags and rifles. The band was lucky to have two of the best drum majors in the state, Cindy Standish and Carol Daubert. The voice for the Big Blue Machine was Robert Yadon. The band received a SUPERIOR rating at the FAIR PARADE, MARCHARAMA, which is against all the other city bands and STATE COMPETITION. They also received 2nd place in the Christmas Parade. This year was a truly AWESOME year for the BIG BLUE MACHINE.

1. The Band is all bundled up and ready to watch those Chargers win!!!
 2. Tony concentrates on his drumming.
 3. Heather Brown and Kerin Deetz stand at Attention . . .
 4. Don Edwards blows a few tunes.
 5. The Swingingest Percussion Section in all the land.
 6. "Look, there's a bird over head, but never fear Super Cymbals is here. I'll smash that culprit!"

CHARGERETTES CHARGERETTES CHARGERETTES CHARGERETTES CHARGERETTES CHARGERETTES CHARG

Chargerettes — The squad consisted of 10 very devoted girls. They showed their devotion by being at practice at 6:15 every morning with or without the band. With 2 very deranged leaders, who were always asleep at the flag, they yanked, swung and smashed in unison. And sometimes not in unison, as demonstrated in their famous flag toss, which was guaranteed to knock out a few band members. Our hats off to the Chargerettes!!!

Encorpes — The rifle squad did very well this year considering they had a whole new squad. The rifles became familiar with drop tocs, hip swaying, and crazy eights. The Rifles acted as royal keepers of the balloons for the bands "Grand Finale," which was a real show stopper. The Rifles and flags were a real asset to the band.

1. Flags and rifles create a fanfare around soloist Graham Lockett and Lisa Coggins.
2. "Peek-a-Boo."
3. Tracie Brown and Helen Manning show how to count.
4. "Oh no, an attack rifle!"

SURFS: This group of girls enjoyed many activities which included canoeing, street skating, ice skating, a float trip adventure to the Rocky Horror Picture Show, had many parties, and went to Worlds of Fun. Everyday at 12:50 these zany girls headed for the pool to put together this year's Surf Show. This year's show was "Surfs in the Spotlight." Just a few of the wild and crazy performers were: "Can Can Dancers" Chimney Sweeps, Flappers, Island Girls and an appearance from Peter Pan. The finale, spectacularly executed, was from "A Chorus Line." This year's show could not have been such a success without the help of Sharon Cairnes.

1. Flappers for the show. Carey Johnson, Doryss Andretta, Lisa Mears, Heather Pinkus
 2. Island Girls do the Hula, while Popeye sings (Linda Ford, Barry Hatchett, John McMullen)
 3. Maria and the Kids sing and dance. (Doryss Andretta, Anne Gale, Mary Ann Wiles, Sheila Carr, Heather Pinkus, Paula Bowers)
 4. All right girls, we do hold our legs in suspended animation for 10 minutes.
 5. Sheila Carr and Carey Johnson flash us a few "Secret Pal" goodies.
 6. "Last one in is a rotten egg" (Cindy Winter, Carolyn Ball, Alison Bessler, Paula Merlino)
 7. "Singing in the Rain." (Lessley Waggoner, Lisa Mears, Misty Humphreys)

Prom is a farewell celebration of the past, and a good-luck party for the future. Dressed in formal attire, flowers and smiles, everyone headed for the William Plaza Ballroom. "Little Brother" rocked the night away and the 1982 graduates sure kept up the beat. The rockin' still didn't stop at 12:00, as most rocked on to the after parties. The night left many memories of laughter, romance, friends and craziness, and The Class of '82 proved once again we really knew how to LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL!

TUESDAY
MAY 25, 1982

Ziegfields and John Bayouth proudly present the Memorial High School class of 1982 Senior Breakfast. Our class showed our style at this ritzy place, (of course, it cost $10 to be so elaborate) and ate like the queens and kings of yesterday. The senior assembly was a memory maker. The whole occasion was for leaving a lasting memory of the talent in the class of '82. The band singing, and comic relief let us break away from the sadness of high school coming to an end.

WEDNESDAY
MAY 26, 1982

GOVERNOR GEORGE NIGH - SPEAKER

As each member of the 1982 graduating class finally held their diploma in hand, some smiled, some cried, and some smiled and cried at the same time.

Memorial High School hopes all its graduates walk away from its halls with pride for where they came from, and dreams for where they'll be tomorrow. We were the best yesterday, we are the best today, and we will be the best tomorrow.

GO FOR IT, 1982!!

MEMORIAL'S M&M'S

"Who ate the grease pencils, David?"

"Croppes don't just get up and walk away, Connie!"

"Terri, have you made your six trips to Photography Center for pictures today?"

Christie always needs to know if reverse is white and overburn is black, or visa-versa.

Will somebody please tell Laurie what UPS means!

Don't ask Renea anything! She will just tell you to check with Mrs. Lentz!

Ask the athletes why Lisa and Sandi were so anxious to do the sports section!

"We may have to stay until 4:00 but we'll stay until we're finished, right Steve and Lori?"

MEMORY MAKERS

1. Lisa Vandiver works diligently the day before a deadline.
2. Sandi Thornton and Lisa Vandiver, the sport's referees.
3. "There has got to be a better way to get on the roof." (Terri Shipley)
4. Sandi Thornton prepares "another" scoreboard.
5. Terri Shipley, the zoo-keeper! (Class sections)
6. "There is no way I am going to meet this deadline" (Sandi Thornton)
7. Renea Knox, the girl who can put words on paper!
8. Christie Dennis, the official yearbook "soc" (student life section)
9. Someone's picture must be awfully funny!
10. Lori Fisk and Laurie Hightower, academic section.
11. Laurie, Christie, and Lori all caught outside of their natural habitat, room 111!
12. Christie is once again desperately looking for pictures!

MEMORIAL TAPS

Dedicated to Tulsa Students and Teachers who Served on World Wars I, II and the Korean Conflict

I am dedicated in memory of all Tulsa students and teachers who, in complete devotion, minded that those ideals which built our Republic shall remain forever secure.

My high purpose is to teach an abiding love of America which shall serve her at all times. Should destiny so determine, a love courageously serve her to "the last full measure of devotion" that the dignity of man always held in esteem.

I am a perpetual light to all who seek freedom.

As long as youth shall devote serious endeavor in my classroom and school corridors with laughter, I stand as a symbol for all who seek a better life through education.

TAPS

Days done, gone the sun, from the lake, from the hill, from the sky, All is well, safely rest, God is nigh.

ALMA MATER

Firmly founded Alma Mater, Ever true will be. Here in your halls of learning pledge we loyalty. We'll sing praises, speed them onward, to the world proclaim, we'll always shield and cherish Memorial High School.

MEMORIAL TAPS XX

Much time and effort is put between the cover of this book. Its creators would like to give Mrs. Lentz a very special thanks for her help and patience. We also greatly appreciate the following:
